

DEGREE LEADING TO A UNIVERSITY OF APPLIED SCIENCES MASTERS DEGREE QUALIFICATION

Ministry of Education decisions 71/530/2005; 17.6.2005, 135/530/2007; 8.6.2007, 165/530/2008; 19.6.2008, 108/530/2009; 11.8.2009; 11.8.2009

University of Applied Sciences degree Name of qualification	Degree	Credits
Engineering (higher AMK degree) Master of Engineering	Master's Degree in Technology Competence Management	60 cr
	This postgraduate degree is for those who are graduates in Engineering. The degree is delivered as blended studies and completed while working with assignments that are closely related to the students' own work. The studies emphasise independent work, distance-learning assignments, and intensive study modules. A development assignment plays a significant role in these studies. It is designed to serve the requirements of working life and is individually tailored.
Master of Healthcare (Nurse, AMK) Master of Healthcare (Public Health Nurse, AMK)	Master's Degree in Healthcare Management and Development	90 cr
	The postgraduate university of applied sciences degree is aimed at those who have acquired a university of applied sciences Bachelors degree in Healthcare therefore qualifying as a Nurse (UAS), Public Health Nurse (UAS), Midwife (UAS), or Paramedic (UAS). The degree will be delivered in the form of blended studies over two years. The aim of the degree is to provide wide-ranging and expert competence for work in healthcare expert and leadership posts. The course is work-oriented and it takes into account the region's special features in the field. The studies consist of leadership courses, research and development studies and a developmental work-oriented thesis.
Tourism and Hospitality - higher AMK degree Master of Hospitality Management	Master's Degree in Hospitality Management.	90 cr
	Those eligible to apply for this degree will possess a University of Applied Sciences Bachelor of Hospitality Management degree qualification, or another appropriate UAS degree qualification or higher education degree. The degree should be completed within approx. two years. It provides a wide-ranging and in depth understanding of the tourism industry and the competence to work in positions requiring expertise and the ability to manage development. The studies consist of joint studies, free-choice specialist studies, free-choice studies and a development assignment in the form of a thesis.

Master of Healthcare (Nurse AMK)  Master of Healthcare (Public Health Nurse, AMK)	Clinical Specialist Master's degree	90 cr
	The postgraduate university of applied sciences degree is aimed at those who have acquired a university of applied sciences Bachelors degree in Healthcare therefore qualifying as a Nurse (UAS), Public Health Nurse (UAS), Midwife (UAS), or Paramedic (UAS). The studies take two to three years to complete in the form of blended studies. The aim of the degree is to develop competence in clinical nursing expertise. The degree is working life oriented and takes into account special regional features. The degree consists of studies in counselling and teaching, patient safety, medical treatment competence and research and development work as well as a work-development based thesis.
Master of Business Administration (AMK)	The Degree in Entrepreneurial and Business Competence	90 cr
	This university of applied sciences postgraduate degree is aimed at those who have completed a University of Applied Sciences Bachelor of Business Administration degree or other suitable university of applied sciences or university degree. The studies take two years to complete in the form of blended studies while working. The course provides a wide-ranging and in depth understanding of entrepreneurship and business competence, with the skills to work in demanding development posts requiring expertise. The studies consist of common studies, optional major studies and a thesis in the form of a development assignment.	